2025 FY RESULTS PRESENTATION

Disclaimer

From time to time, AVA Capital PLC (“AVA Capital”, the “Company” or the “Group”) may make written and/or oral forward-looking statements. These may be included in this presentation and in other communications, including discussions with analysts, investors, clients, the media, and other stakeholders.

Forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements regarding the Company’s strategic objectives and priorities for the period and beyond, growth initiatives, capital raising activities, transaction pipelines, assets under management, market positioning, revenue projections, cost optimization plans, and anticipated financial performance. Such statements are typically identified by words such as “will,” “should,” “believe,” “expect,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “estimate,” “project,” “plan,” “may,” “could,” “target,” and similar expressions.

By their nature, these statements require the Company to make assumptions and are subject to inherent risks and uncertainties, both general and specific. In particular, uncertainties in the financial markets, macroeconomic conditions, regulatory environment, and capital market activity levels may cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied in the forward-looking statements. Many of these risks are beyond the Company’s control, and their impact may be difficult to predict. This may cause actual results to differ materially from the expectations expressed or implied in the forward-looking statements.

Risk factors that could cause actual results to differ materially include, but are not limited to, volatility in equity, fixed income, and foreign exchange markets; changes in capital market regulations and other regulatory directives, fluctuations in transaction volumes, investor sentiment, liquidity and funding conditions, counterparty and settlement risks, operational risks, compliance and reputational risks, competitive pressures within the financial services and capital markets industry, as well as broader economic, political, and global market developments. All such factors should be carefully considered, along with other uncertainties and the inherent limitations of forward-looking statements, when making investment or business decisions relating to the Company. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on forward-looking statements.

Any forward-looking statements contained in this presentation reflect the views of management only as of the date hereof. They are provided solely for the purpose of assisting investors and stakeholders in understanding the Company’s business strategy, financial position, objectives, and anticipated performance, and may not be appropriate for other purposes.

The Company undertakes no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether written or oral, except as required under applicable securities laws and regulations.
Other than the Company’s historical financial information, certain data and market information contained herein have been obtained from sources believed to be reliable. While reasonable care has been taken to ensure the accuracy of the information presented, the Company and its affiliates make no representation or warranty, express or implied, as to its accuracy or completeness. Accordingly, recipients are advised to exercise caution and conduct independent due diligence before making any investment or business decision.

This presentation does not constitute investment advice, an offer to sell, or a solicitation to buy any securities. It is not a research report, and neither the Company nor its directors, officers, or employees shall be liable for any decision made or action taken in reliance on the information contained herein.
